PRESS RELEASE

ATHENS, GREECE, SEPTEMBER, 2011: POTAMITISVEKRIS, the Athens based law firm, is pleased to announce that Vicky Psaltis has become its eighth partner, effective as of September of this year. Following her graduation from Bristol University, Vicky was called to the Bar of England & Wales (Grays Inn) in 1993 and qualified with the Cyprus Bar in 1994 and the Athens Bar in 2006. After working for a private law firm in Cyprus for a number of years, she moved to Greece and joined our firm in 1999. Since then, Vicky has risen through the ranks gaining significant experience in various areas of law including international arbitrations, M&A, project finance, real estate and shipping. She is now the partner in charge of our Arbitration practice. "Vicky combines legal brilliance with gentle determination that naturally inspires confidence" says the firm's managing partner Stathis Potamitis, "We are delighted and proud that Vicky has joined our partnership team".
