PRESS RELEASE

ATHENS, GREECE, 20TH MAY, 2010: POTAMITISVEKRIS, the Athens based law firm, is pleased to announce that Alexios Papastavrou has been become its seventh partner, effective as of July 1 of this year. Alexios is a highly regarded employment law specialist and a very experienced litigator. Over the years, he has represented some of the most prominent domestic and international enterprises in Greece, commanding their loyalty and trust. With the addition of Alexios to the partnership, POTAMITISVEKRIS incorporates employment law to the practice areas in which it holds a leading position in the Greek legal market. The growth of the law partnership has also necessitated the addition of office space to its base in Kolonaki. As of July 1, the firms' litigators will be based on Petraki Street, just off Syntagma Square. "We are confident and focused" says the firm's managing partner Stathis Potamitis, "and we believe that we will continue to grow both in size and stature during this period of turbulence, which encourages clients to seek top quality in their legal representation and support."
